Report Summary

Officer M was dispatched to a theft from vehicle at 1738 hrs on 2xxx Northside Dr at the Grant Tennis Center, upon arrival I spoke with the victim . Victim stated the she went to the tennis center to pick up her children and she placed her purse under her passenger front seat under some items. Victim advised that she walked inside the tennis center and returned to her vehicle ten minutes later and her passenger side window was broken out and her purse was taken. I was unable to dust for print on the outside due to the raining weather and was unable to lift any prints from inside the vehicle. There were no camera's in the parking lot and I went inside the center to speak with the employees and they advised that don't have any camera's in the parking lot. While gathering all my information victim was in the process of cancelling all her credit cards.

Evening Watch Supervisor and CID was notified.

Report Summary

On November 15, 2011, I responded to the above location which is the former Hampton Oaks Apartment complex for a larceny call. Upon arriving at the scene I was met by Ms. D who is the compliance/ ITemployee for the property owner company Prism Realty / PRI Housing and Mr. H who is the maintenance service manager. Mrs. D stated that the property is currently vacant with the exception of one unit and all units have been boarded up as the residents moved out. stated that they are reporting appliances that are missing from the property since July 8, 2011. Mrs. D advised that they have already filed a insurance claim and the insurance agent has already walked the property to verify the above listed items have been removed from the units. Mrs. D stated that she was instructed by the insurance agent that she needed a police report in order to continue with the claim. Mr. H stated that he responded to the property approximately ten times beginning July 8, 2011 through September 7, 2011 and discovered the above listed appliances missing from several of the vacant units. Mr. H stated that he also discovered several doors and windows to the units had been damaged. Both could not advise when the last time the items were seen in the units and when each of the units had been boarded up. Investigator R, was contacted and he responded to the location. Sergeant P, was also contacted and she informed me to do an information report regarding the missing appliances since the units were already boarded up and we could not enter to verify the items were gone.
